

The MarketsNew York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 18.—The strength of rails and reactionary trend of specialties were the conspicuous features of today's market.

United States Steel manifested further selling pressure, although opening at a slight rise in two lots of 3,800 shares. Copper were inclined to react but Anaconda and Guggenheim were higher.

Closes:

American Sugar Refining, 117.

Anaconda Copper, 88½.

Archison, 187½.

Chino Copper, 224.

Inspiration Copper, 45½.

Northern Pacific, 116½.

United States Steel, 117½.

London Stock Market.

London, Nov. 18.—Except for moderate amount of business in the lower priced issues on the stock market, American securities were dull and inclined to drop on the rise in the exchange.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Cattle and hog weather and the fact that receipts in the northwest were smaller tended today to strengthen the price of wheat. After opening 1 1/2¢ off at $1.05 1/2, it rose 1 1/2¢, and May at $1.05 1/2 to $1.07 1/2.

Corn hardened in value owing to unfavorable conditions for curing and shipping. Opening prices, which ranged from 1 1/2¢ decline to 1 1/2¢ increase, were followed by a slight sag and then a general upturn.

The close was strong, 1 1/2¢ to 1 1/2¢ net higher, with December at $1.07 1/2, and May at $1.07 1/2 to $1.07 1/2.

Oats seemed to be governed mainly by the action of corn.

Advances in the hog market were limited to provisions.

Close:

Wheat—Dec., $1.05 1/2; May, $1.07 1/2.

Pretty Bad, Pretty Bad!

"How would you like to come down to the garage and see your electric car charged again?"

"Ooh! That would be a revolting sight."

Everywhere The Same

Green grocers keep two kinds of spuds.

(Though this they may not own): One kind for those who don't their duds.

To come and pick out their own goods.

And funs for those who 'phone.

STRICKLAND I. W. GILLILAN*Old Red "Zinnies"

My wife puts out some posies every springtime of the year, a lot of new doodadels—but their names and colors queer. We try to rave about 'em, but it always seems to me that they lack a lot of being just what flowers ought to be.

So last spring, when we're buying stuff to fix the garden up, I says to her, "Melissa, seems to me of joy will be much fuller if we'd stop this modern craze And get some good old 'zinnies' like our mothers used to raise."

Melissa she consented and we bought a lot o' seed, and every plant just bumped itself and prospered like a weed.

And early in the summer days they started in to bloom—We giggled like a pair of kids and hollered, "Give 'em room!" Git out the way, you critters with the foolish Latin names.

Protect your pallid faces from the florid, flaunting flames Of those beloved standbys of our simpler, sweeter days—These good old-fashioned 'zinnies' like our mothers used to raise."

Portugal's Cabinet ONCE MORE OFFERS TO QUIT THE JOB

By Evening Herald Leased Wire

Paris, Nov. 18, 9:45 a.m.—Premier Costa of Portugal again tendered the resignation of the cabinet to President Macnico yesterday but the executive refused to accept, requesting the ministry to remain in power until parliament gave some indication as to who would be acceptable as successor to the present members of the cabinet, says a Paris dispatch.

Great Irish Writer Dead.

London, Nov. 18.—In the death of Stephen O'Grady, which is announced from Hale, Cheshire, Eng., modest Irish literature loses one of its most brilliant representatives. As poet, essayist, and historian, O'Grady's work is generally regarded as the starting point of the so-called Celtic Renaissance.

If the doctor has any doubts as to the correctness of his diagnosis in a surgical case, he finds his information in the postmortem and writes a short article on the tombstone.

O'Grady was in turn lawyer, journalist and author. He was a native of Tipperary and 69 years old.
